*F*ull of trust, we bring our intentions to the Mother of All Nations through this novena and ask for her intercession. The powerful prayer of the Mother of All Nations and her words on a specific theme will accompany us on each of the nine days.

Amsterdam – December 8, 2013

 On May 31, 1996, after having consulted the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, the Bishop of Haarlem-Amsterdam, His Excellency H. Bomers, together with his Auxiliary Bishop, His Excellency J. M. Punt, gave permission for the public veneration of the Blessed Virgin Mary under the title “The Lady of All Nations.”*

Under this title, the Blessed Virgin appeared in Amsterdam from 1945-1959, revealing to an ordinary woman named Ida Peerdeman, that she as “The Lady of All Nations” or “The Mother of All Nations”, wants to be known and loved by all. She shows the current situation in the Church and in the world through impressive prophetic visions. In her messages, Our Lady reveals God’s plan to save the world through His Mother. Accordingly, she gives all peoples and nations a prayer and an image.

The image shows the Lady of All Nations standing on the globe, permeated by God’s light before the Cross of her Son, the Redeemer, with whom she is inseparably united. From Mary’s hands stream forth three rays of Grace, Redemption and Peace which she may grant to those who invoke her as Advocate. The flock of sheep represents the nations of the whole world who will not find rest until they look up to the Cross, the center of the world.

The Lady of All Nations dictates a short, powerful prayer to preserve us from degeneration, impending disaster and war. “You, nations of this time, know that you are under the protection of the Lady of All Nations. Invoke her as Advocate; ask her to stave off all disasters. Ask her to banish degeneration from this world. From degeneration comes disaster. From degeneration comes war. Through my prayer you shall ask that this be staved off from the world. You do not know how great and how important this prayer is before God.” (May 31, 1955)

*S*he asks that this prayer be prayed at least once a day. “I assure you that the world will change.” (April 29, 1951) As Mother of All Nations she has been sent by the Father and the Son to bring unity and peace to the world for “under this title and through this prayer, she may deliver the world from a great world catastrophe.” (May 10, 1953) Therefore, the Lady of All Nations emphatically asks for a great worldwide action to spread her prayer and image. “Help with all your means and see to the outspreading, everyone in one’s own way.” (June 15, 1952)

Day 1

“I may be for you the Mother”

Mary appears in Amsterdam standing on the globe and says that she wants to be known and loved in our time as the Lady, the Mother of All Nations. In the very first message she presents herself under her new title: “They will call me ‘The Lady’, ‘Mother’.” (March 25, 1945) In the following years she often speaks about her maternal role: “No matter who or what you are, I may be for you: the Mother.” (May 31, 1954) “Also the Lord needed His mother to come to life. Through the mother comes life. Therefore she must be brought into your churches and among the nations, and you will experience the flourishing.” (March 25, 1973)

Mother, I ask you, let me, my family and all people recognize that you are truly the mother for each one of us. On behalf of everyone I want to consecrate myself to you today:

*“Mother, I am yours now and forever.
Through you and with you,
I want to always belong entirely to Jesus.”*

Day 2

The Lady of All Nations brings everyone back into one fold

In a vision, Ida sees around the globe countless white and black sheep and lambs which symbolize all peoples and races of the earth. The Lady of All Nations explains that they “will not find rest until they lie down and in tranquility look up at the Cross, the center of this world.” (May 31, 1951) “The Church, the sheep, have been scattered and still more will take to flight. The Lady of All Nations, however, will bring them back into one fold.” (March 19, 1952)

Mother, I ask you for everybody who has turned away from God. Lead all those who have strayed or who are disappointed and in inner rebellion because of being let down by others back to the true Faith and so to the Church of your Son. In your maternal care bring all “lost sheep” back into one fold under one shepherd!

Day 3

“I will give consolation”

“I said: I will give consolation. Nations, your Mother knows life, your Mother knows sorrow, your Mother knows the Cross. Everything you go through in this life is a passage that your Mother, the Lady of All Nations, went before you ... you also go up to the Father by your way of the Cross; you also go up to the Son by your way of the Cross. The Holy Spirit will help you. Invoke Him in this time. I cannot say this enough to the world: go to the Holy Spirit in this time!” (May 31, 1955)

Mother, Bride of the Holy Spirit and Mediatrix of All Grace, I beseech you for all the sick and suffering, for all the lonesome and forgotten, for all who live in separation or divorce and for all those who suffer persecution. Let them perceive the help and consolation of the Holy Spirit on their Way of the Cross, so that through His love they may have the strength to accept their suffering and to unite it with the infinitely precious suffering of Christ.

Day 4

“The Lady of All Nations will grant true peace to the world”

*“Pray this prayer in all that you do.” (Dec. 31, 1951)
“It is given in order to call down the True Spirit upon the world.” (Sept. 20, 1951) “You cannot estimate the great value this will have. You do not know what the future has in store.” (April 15, 1951) The Lady of All Nations has been sent by her Lord and Creator so that “under this title and through this prayer, she may deliver the world from a great world catastrophe ...
Through this prayer the Lady will save the world. I repeat this promise once more.” (May 10, 1953) “You do not know how great and how important this prayer is before God.” (May 31, 1955) “I will and may bestow
Grace, Redemption and Peace upon all who ask me.”
(Aug. 15, 1951)*

Mother, I ask you for peace in my own heart, for peace in my family and for peace among all peoples.

Day 5

“Grace for soul and body”

The Lady of All Nations turns to the visionary: “Now look at my hands and describe what you see.” Now it is as if there, in the middle of her hands, had been a wound. From there, from each hand, three rays of light are coming forth, shining upon the sheep. The Lady smiles and says, “These are three rays, the rays of Grace, Redemption and Peace.” (May 31, 1951)

Mary says to the visionary and so to each one of us, “You shall always come before this image ... in order to pray for all people who are in need, bodily and spiritual.” (Nov. 15, 1951) “Tell your spiritual director and all who cooperate in this that I promise to give grace for soul and body—according to the Son’s will—to all who pray before the image and call upon Mary, the Lady of All Nations.” (May 31, 1951)

Mother, I ask you for all those who suffer from inner wounds, have anxiety or depression, or are dependent on drugs and on the brink of despair. Mother, implore and mediate to them the Grace of the Father, the Salvation of the Son and the Peace of the Holy Spirit.

Day 6

“Be grateful”

“Now I speak to the nations of the entire world: apostles and nations, kneel down before your Lord and Creator and be grateful! This world’s science has made people forget gratitude. They no longer know their Creator. Nations, be warned. Kneel down humbly before your Creator.” The Lady says this with immense reverence and devotion. She falls to her knees and bows her head so deeply that it nearly touches the ground. “Implore His mercy and He is merciful. Doesn’t He give you proof of it in this time? May the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be with you all the days of your life.” (May 31, 1954)

Mother, teach me and all people to be grateful before our Lord and God. Let me realize as a humble child, that I have received from God all that I am, and that I can do nothing without Him. Give this insight also to all those who think they do not need God for their happiness.

Day 7

Practicing love in all its refinement

“The first and greatest commandment is Love. One who possesses love will honor one’s Lord and Creator in His creation. One who possesses love will do nothing dishonorable towards one’s neighbor. That is what this world lacks: Love of God, Love of Neighbor.” (July 2, 1951) “And then I say to the little ones: if you practice Love among yourselves in all its refinement, even the great ones will not have a chance.” (Feb. 11, 1951)

Mother, I beseech you for those with responsibility in politics and society. May their decisions be determined by selfless love for God and neighbor. I also want to contribute my part by purposely fulfilling my daily duty with love. Since I do not have this love of my own accord, again and again I want to pray the powerful prayer for the coming of the Holy Spirit, which you revealed as mother for all peoples.

Day 8

“Go with great ardor and zeal about this work”

The Mother of All Nations asks each one of us to help spread her prayer and her image: “Go with great ardor and zeal about this work of redemption and peace, and you will behold the miracle.” (April 1, 1951) “Help with all your means and see to the outspreading, everyone in one’s own way.” (June 15, 1952) “This action is not for one country; this action is for all nations.” (Oct. 11, 1953) “They all have a right to it. I assure you that the world will change.” (April 29, 1951)

Mother, give me the courage, the zeal and the faithfulness to fulfill your request and to participate in the “worldwide action”. If I find it difficult in a certain situation and I hesitate to offer the prayer card, remind me of your promise: “Mary takes responsibility for it ... all have a right to it!” Indeed all peoples shall know that you are their mother.

Day 9

“The crowning of the Mother of the Lord Jesus Christ”

“This image shall precede. This image must go over the whole world. It is the interpretation and illustration of the new dogma. This is why I myself have given this image to the peoples.” (Dec. 8, 1952) The Lady of All Nations asks on behalf of God for the “final and greatest dogma” (Aug. 15, 1951), “the crowning of the Mother of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Coredeмпtrix, Mediatrix and Advocate.” (Oct. 11, 1953) Mary even reveals its gracious effect: “Once the dogma, the final dogma in Marian history, has been proclaimed, the Lady of All Nations will grant peace, true peace, to the world.” (May 31, 1954)

Mother, I ask you for all who bear responsibility in the Church: the Holy Father, cardinals, bishops and priests. Enlighten them so that in their vocation as shepherds they may bravely stand up for you as the Mother of All Nations. May they give you, as soon as possible, through the dogma the place in the heart of the Church, which they recognize in the light of God as being fitting and true.
